Letter of Recommendation:

With your application, please submit at least one Letter of Recommendation, preferably from a participant in the Japanese/Japanese American (J/JA) community. The endorser can be a community or professional colleague, supervisor, professor, etc. (no family members, please).

The Guidelines for the Letter of Recommendation are as follows (a separate instruction sheet for your endorser is available at the end of these instructions and at www.SakuraFoundation.org.)

1. Endorser name, mailing address, email address and cell number
2. Under what circumstances and for how long you have known the applicant
3. A brief description of your involvement in the Japanese/Japanese American (J/JA) community
4. Your assessment of why the applicant would be a good candidate for the Mirai Generations Leadership Program, including the following:
 - Your knowledge of the applicant's professionalism, initiative, capacity for team work/interaction with others and capacity for growth
 - Your knowledge of the applicant's commitment to the J/JA community

The Letter of Recommendation must be submitted no later than February 4, 2023. It may accompany your application or may be sent directly from the endorser to MGLP@SakuraFoundation.org.

Tuition

The tuition for the Class of 2023 session is $250 per participant. Lack of funds should not prevent a candidate from applying to the program. Requests for financial aid or scholarships will be taken on a case-by-case basis after the selection process. All program materials are covered by the program. Payment is due on or before the first MGLP session on March 11, 2023.

For the safety of all, Sakura Foundation will implement and adjust its safety guidelines throughout the program based on community health conditions and CDC, state, and local guidelines in order to protect participants, staff, and presenters.

SAKURA
FOUNDATION

Thank you for your interest in the Mirai Generations Leadership Program.

Sakura Foundation is pleased to present this valuable program to our community.

Letter of Recommendation Guidelines

To the Applicant:

Please submit one Letter of Recommendation, preferably from a participant in the Japanese/Japanese American (J/JA) community, with your application for the Mirai Generations Leadership Program. The endorser can be a community or professional colleague, supervisor, professor, etc. (no family members, please).

The Letter of Recommendation must be submitted no later than February 4, 2023, either online with the application submission or via email to MGLP@SakuraFoundation.org.

To the Endorser:

The Mirai Generations Leadership Program (MGLP) provides a space for its participants to learn more about themselves, grow their leadership skills, learn about the Japanese/Japanese American (J/JA) community, discover how they want to contribute to and be a part of the community and meet mentors and peers with whom they will make lifelong connections. The program is presented annually by Sakura Foundation.

In your Letter of Recommendation, please include responses to the following:

1. Your name, mailing address, email address and cell number
2. Under what circumstances and for how long you have known the applicant
3. A brief description of your involvement in the Japanese/Japanese American (J/JA) community
4. Your assessment of why the applicant would be a good candidate for the Mirai Generations Leadership Program, including the following:
 - Your knowledge of the applicant's professionalism, initiative, capacity for team work/interaction with others and capacity for growth
 - Your knowledge of the applicant's commitment to the J/JA community

FOUNDATION

Sakura Foundation shares and celebrates Japanese/Japanese American (J/JA) community, culture and heritage through programs, events, grants and scholarships in order to create a more harmonious and respectful society. The Foundation encourages and embraces community members of all walks of life to share in the J/JA experience in metro Denver.
